The Ten Commandments—Commandment #6 (Exodus 34:28)

"Thou shalt not kill." (Exodus 20:13)

Introduction

Do you think that this commandment is simply an avoidance of physical expression upon another?

Jesus says, "But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire" (Matthew 5:22). "Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him" (1 John 3:15).

How Far Does It Go?

Evidently Jesus includes the non-physical exercise in the commandment. Getting angry, venting, and such are all examples of breaking this commandment. But how far does it really go? "For as he thinketh in his heart, so [is] he" (Proverbs 23:7). Even the thought of anger towards another violates the commandment.

Now remember, the word "hate" does not only mean the extreme "I wish you were dead" attitude. There are only two sides – love and hate. The thought in your mind towards another, is it love or hate? Which way is it more like? Then that is what it is.

What Is Your Reaction?

In a different situation with a similar hard to accept message, "Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard [this], said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?" (John 6:60)

"When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?" (John 6:61)

What Hope Of Victory Is There?

With the violation of this commandment including even the thought of being angry towards another, it seems like an impossibility. "But Jesus beheld [them], and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible" (Matthew 19:26).

What Type of Victory Is It?

Some take the salvation of Jesus and apply it to the allowance of continuing in sin, convincing themselves that it is impossible for a human to never get angry again but simply accept Jesus' life as credit. But is this accurate? "[This] I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh" (Galatians 5:16). Remember, Jesus already stated that to get angry with someone is equivalent to murder and would be in danger of going to hell. Now God never condemns someone to hell if they are able to do something about it.

What Are the Lusts of the Flesh?

"Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are [these]; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told [you] in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God" (Galatians 5:19-21). So murderers, including those that get angry with others, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

MISSION STATEMENT:

Strengthen faith in God's Word.

MISSION FOCUS:

To strengthen the faith in God's Word by reaching out to the communities through our newsletter (since 1998) as well as through our evangelistic seminars (since 1994). It is to help keep those that are discouraged about things they see inside the church from leaving, to ground those that are new or have not heard of these things before, and to strengthen those that are already grounded. And to reach out to those that are searching for a meaningful relationship with God through His Son Jesus Christ.

What Can You Do?

Simply trust in Jesus. "Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present [you] faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy" (Jude 1:24).

How Far Will Anger Go?

Revelation 11:18 says, "And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldst destroy them which destroy the earth." This is further confirmed by Matthew 24:7, the chapter of last day events. "For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places."

Evidently it will be one of the last signs before Jesus returns. When the anger of nations get to the point of world destruction, then it is time for Jesus to return because if He returns after that time, there will be no one alive to return to. And if there is no one to return to, that will cause the remaining prophecies of the Bible to go unfulfilled.

Is All Anger Condemned?

Jesus did say that if you have a cause, then anger is permitted, but be careful not to open the loophole larger than intended. The only anger Jesus demonstrated was the cause for heavenly righteousness.

Mark 3:5 says, "And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched [it] out: and his hand was restored whole as the other." Notice that Jesus was not angry at what they said. He was angry because of their hardness of hearts. So when someone treats you awful, do not get angry at the symptoms – the actions and words spoken towards you.

In Conclusion

"Blessed [are] they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. For without [are] dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie" (Revelation 22:14-15).

"He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death" (Revelation 21:7-8).

Remember, Jesus said that if you continue in anger towards another, it is the same as committing murder. And murderers will not be found in the city, the New Jerusalem. Ask God today to take away all anger and "ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord" (James 1:6-7).

TRAIN UP A CHILD IN THE WAY HE SHOULD GO: AND WHEN HE IS OLD, HE WILL NOT DEPART FROM IT (Prov. 22:6)

Character Examples From the Bible – Moses (Taking Matters Into His Own Hands)

Exodus 2:11-15 "And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren. And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that [there was] no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand. And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow? And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known. Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well."

Moses was to lead Israel out of Egypt. He thought it was to be by force. What children need to know to help them make correct and godly decisions is to understand the character of God. If Moses would have remembered that God is not a god of force but of gentleness, patience, and longsuffering, he may not have tried leading Israel by force. Likewise, when a dispute arises between children, the one may be clearly wrong, but to follow it with another wrong act, an act of force, just escalates the situation. Teach them to exercise all peaceable means.

HEALTH SNIPPET:

Isaiah 32:18 "And my people shall dwelt in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places."

Having a peaceable habitation reduces stress. Encouraging all in the family to cease from self-interest is the only long lasting way to have peace. As soon as self is revealed in a family member, the peace crumbles.

Since Satan hates the family unit, he will use every invention to break this peace. So, "resist the devil, and he will flee from you" (James 4:7), and "put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil" (Ephesians 6:11).

To accomplish this, remove things that tend to or teach self-interest and promote those things that promote family interest. Specifically, ask yourself what certain

What Does the Bible Say About - Marriage?

Sunday, April 25,
3:00 P.M.

Is being in love all that matters? Once the marriage is recognized, what guidelines does God have? These and other questions will be addressed for those thinking of marriage, already married, and even those contemplating divorce. Couples or singles will appreciate the information provided, even if there is no one in your life right now.

BIBLE STUDY

Bearing Record
(Revelation 1:2)

1. In addition to the Word of God, why else was John banished to Patmos?
Revelation 1:9
2. In addition to keeping the commandments of God, what else identifies the Remnant? Revelation 12:17
3. What does the Bible define it as?
Revelation 19:10
3. What is the light that is lit? Psalms 119:105 "Thy word [is] a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."
4. What does a coin represent? Luke 15:9-10 "And when she hath found [it], she calleth [her] friends and [her] neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost. Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth."
5. What needs swept? 1 John 1:7 "But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin."

In summary, the parable teaches that a church (house) can be full of lost people, spiritually speaking.

If a church does not keep the light on all of the time (candle) by teaching the full gospel, including calling sin by its right name, then people may be all happy in church, but are not on the books of heaven because they are allowed to continue in sin guilt free.

Many churches are in danger regarding this. Political correctness and popularity are the first orders when God and His Word should be.

ANSWERS TO LAST MONTH'S STUDY:

ANSWERS FOUND IN THE SCRIPTURE OF TRUTH (Daniel 10:21)

QUESTION #1

Mechanicsburg, PA

I saw the Passion of Christ and noticed that Satan has a son. Is that Biblical?

ANSWER #1

The closest resemblance found in the Bible is Genesis 3:15.

"And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel."

Seed referring to offspring is understood by many Christians as a physical lineage, i.e., Satan producing children. They will even go as far as to say that the first sin was not the eating of physical fruit but was actually being with Satan, which produced Cain.

But that is easily refuted by Genesis 4:1, "And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD." Cain is clearly Adam's child.

Another attempt is in Revelation 16:13, where it states, "And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs [come] out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet." The dragon is Satan because of what is stated in Revelation 12:9, "And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him."

What some then conclude is that Satan is trying to counterfeit the Godhead. So if the Godhead consists of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, they then conclude that since Satan replaces the Father, that means he needs a son.

It is true that the Father's throne was challenged according to Isaiah 14:12-14.

"How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! [how] art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High."

But there is no indication that Jesus' position is challenged by a son of Satan. Jesus or Christ's position is challenged by Antichrist, which is not a son. Likewise, the Holy Spirit is being challenged by the false prophet (Revelation 16:13).

Overall, Satan does not have an actual child. But the seed of Satan versus the woman, presumably eve, is simply all unconverted souls. The seed of the woman are converted souls.

QUESTION #2

Dillsburg, PA

Why are "knowledgeable" people afraid to read the book of Revelation?

ANSWER #2

Well, one possibility is that according to Revelation 1:1 God "signified" the contents of the book of Revelation.

1. Instead of identifying the Antichrist in reality, the Book of Revelation symbolized it by a conglomerate beast.
2. Instead of Satan described as a fallen angel, he is signified as a fierce dragon. Some symbols are easily understood such as when a beast rises from the water or sea, Revelation tells in 17:15 that it signifies "peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues."

However, some symbols are very difficult to understand, for instance, there are a lot of conflicting ideas regarding the conglomerate beast. Those that believe the Bible to be its own interpreter go to Daniel 7 for the answer. Those that believe the beast represents a collection of kingdoms today look for the animal representations of countries in the world today. And there are more challenging symbols in Revelation. These challenges cause those that are secure in their knowledge to avoid Revelation and stick with what they know.

Another reason may be that they were told that the Book of Revelation is a closed book.

Yet another reason may be that they trust in their minister interpreting the scriptures for them.

Others may be caught up in the belief that Revelation deals only with the end days, and they do not believe we are in the end days. These of course are misnomers, seeing "All scripture [is] given by inspiration of God, and [is] profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness" according to 2 Timothy 3:16.

In short, we do not know exactly why but this should help.

QUESTION #3

Harrisburg, PA

Is Hell biblical?

ANSWER #3

Let us listen to Jesus. Matthew 5:22 says, "I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire." And He repeats the phrase "hell fire". Matthew 18:9 says, "And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast [it] from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life

BIBLE THOUGHT

Why Was Jesus Forsaken?

Matthew 27:46 “And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?”

“All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23) and “the wages of sin [is] death” (Romans 6:23). Now seeing that good and bad both enter the grave, there must be another death. “He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death” (Revelation 2:11). Jesus not only suffered the first death on the cross, but He suffered the second death as well so that you may not have to die. Have you thought about it? Innocent for the guilty so that the guilty may live. What an exchange!
